THE COST OF DISENGAGEMENT

Did you know that the annual cost of disengaged employees is between $450 - 500 billion?

Employee engagement is crucial for organizational success, as engaged employees are more productive, motivated, and committed to their work. In contrast, disengaged employees can lead to high turnover, low morale, and decreased productivity.

Join Novelette at The Engagement Factor to uncover powerful strategies for revolutionizing your workplace and ignite unparalleled employee engagement.
